Points of Light- A Celebration of Service & the Larchmont Lions 100th

The Larchmont Mamaroneck Lions celebrated the Larchmont Lions 100th anniversary and recognized & honored over 50 community service groups at their January 11th Points of Light Celebration of Service at the Orienta Beach Club in Mamaroneck. Past International Lions President Douglas Alexander was the keynote speaker. The centerpiece was the presenting the Lions Jack Coughlin Community Service Awards to Pat Allen – Girl Scouts leader and Larchmont Friends of the Family. This award, named in memory of long time Lion and founder of Coughlin Insurance, Jack Coughlin, recognizes a group and an individual for outstanding and dedicated service to the Larchmont Mamaroneck community. The event also featured PIP Alexander's induction of 3 new members.

Miracle on 34th Street

The LM Lions Club & its partners presented a live audio theater recreation of the 1949 Lux Radio Theater's version of the Holiday Classic movie, "Miracle On 34th Street". The production took place before a live audience on December 21 at the Larchmont Village Center. The event also included the showing of a Christmas episode of the TV sitcom, Ozzie & Harriet. The production was led by Jason Summers & the Sandbox Theatre. The audience & performers featured professional, blind, handicapped and local school theater students. "A Miracle on 34th Street" was co-sponsored by the Larchmont Library, the Sandbox Theatre, SPERDVAC (The Society for the Preservation of Radio Drama, Variety and Comedy), Westchester Council for the Blind, LMC Media & the LM Lions Club.
